STRIKE IS A MENACE TO NATION

Chicago Strikers Cease From Brotherhood Hanging Grape Over Their Charters.

(BULLETIN)

INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE
PORT WYATT, Ind., April 8.—At Fort Wayne, Ind., April 8.—The railroad strikers are ceasing from their strike, according to a statement issued here today.

INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE
CHICAGO, April 8.—The strike of the national railway strikers has more threatening than ever today.

Defying President Wilson by declaring that they would smother his proposal for the appointment of a wage board to settle their differences with their employers, Chicago's striking railroad workers announced that they would not return to work until their demands have been complied with, regardless of the consequences to industry and the general public.

Hour by hour the situation grew more serious in Chicago. Not only did the strikers declare their intention of making a final fight of it, in defiance of the government and their own brotherhood chiefs, but 6,000 of them—switchmen, engineers and firemen—seceded from the brotherhoods to which they belonged and joined the new "outlaw" union responsible for the strike, the Yardmen's Association of America.

HANG CREPE ON CHARTERS.
The transfer from one organization to another was accomplished by the strikers in mass. As each local went over, crepe was hung over a wage board given by the brotherhood, the Star Spangled Banner was sung and the Stars and Stripes unfurled over the new charter of the Yardmen's Association. Then the chairman ripped the old charter from the wall and tore it to shreds.

While this was going on a number of clerks employed by the various railroad offices, members of the Railway Clerks Union, sent a notice to all the railroads that they would join the strike unless their wages are raised immediately.

R. R. UNION OFFICERS TRY TO STOP STRIKE

INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE
KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 8.—Fourteen hundred switchmen employed on nine of fifteen railroads entering Kansas City are on strike today.

The affected roads virtually are at a standstill. The roads so far affected are the Santa Fe, Burlington, Chicago and Great Western; Chicago & Alton; St. Louis & San Francisco; Kansas City Southern; Kansas City terminal; Missouri Pacific and Wabash.

INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE
CHICAGO, April 8.—Grand lodge officers of the big railroad brotherhoods today concentrated every means in their power to break the strike of switchmen, engineers and firemen in Chicago and to prevent the trouble from attaining the proportions of a nationwide walkout.

With strikes tying up freight traffic here and in Kansas City and Buffalo, and with walkouts threatened in St. Louis and Milwaukee, the railroads face the most serious situation that has confronted them in years.

The brotherhood chiefs, realizing that the preservation of their unions is at stake, joined with the railroad officials in united effort to induce the strikers to return to work and to smother the I. W. W. tactics that are declared to be behind the trouble.

The brotherhood officials expressed confidence that they would be able to break the back of the strike by the end of the week and that by tonight they would have from sixty to seventy-five per cent of Chicago's normal (Continued on page ten.)

Mayor's Ire Was Aroused

At the regular weekly luncheon of the Chamber of Commerce today, W. C. Belman, vice president of the First Trust & Savings Bank, read a letter which had been handed to him with a request that the wages of patrolmen of the Hammond police department be increased from $125 to $150 a month.

Mayor Brown, who was present at the luncheon, leaned in his seat and exclaimed, "Who signed that?"

"There is no signature," Mr. Belman replied.

"Before this goes any further I want to tell the Chamber of Commerce what it will mean," said the mayor.

"Since we assumed office the police have been granted three increases in wages. I am not speaking against this fourth increase, but I do want to say it is impossible because the city can't afford it. Last year over $150,000 was expended in wages for the fire and police departments. Everybody is waiting until high taxes, but if they continue to spring a new raise every few months what can they expect?"

A resolution was passed authorizing President Jesse E. Wilson to appoint a committee of five members to meet with the city finance committee and discuss the proposed increase. A report will be made at the next meeting of the Chamber.

The mayor asserted that the request for an increase was wholly the work of agitators and malcontents. "A lot of the policemen are angry because they didn't get expected promotions and that is why some of them quit—it wasn't because they weren't getting enough money. If we are going to pay them $150 a month there will be a big shake-up in the department and some of them will find themselves without jobs."

Price Is Guilty of Assault

Jury in Crown Point Criminal Court Convicts Accused Hammond Man.

(By Times Staff Man)

CROWN POINT, Ind., April 8.—After deliberating an hour and a half, the jury in the case of William Price, Hammond lawyer, on trial in the criminal court on a charge of assault with intent to commit rape, yesterday afternoon at 3:30 brought in a verdict finding the defendant guilty of assault. He was fined $50 and costs and was later released under $500 bail pending trial on a charge of having in his possession a "dread" and lasciviously object prohibited under the statutes of Indiana.

Instructing the jury, Judge Smith said that evidence introduced by the state surrounding other crimes alleged to have been committed by Price should be disregarded and the accusation against the defendant should be tried on its merits alone.

Ir. C. Tilton, counsel for the defense, in an impassioned plea to the jury, said that Price, an ex-judge of East Chicago eight years ago, had the comeliness to fine a Catholic priest for whipping a boy and that since then the defendant has been "hounded." He further alleged that the statutes of Indiana gives a man the privilege of flogging a woman, even a stranger, and that "perhaps Price meant only to hug Vera Koch."

Deputy Prosecutor Albert E. Griffith, who conducted the case for the state, used Tilton's own assertion as reason enough for conviction and pointed out that men who make a practice of assaulting women and girls on the street are a menace to the community and should be jailed.

Character witnesses introduced by the state included Mayor Leo McCormick of East Chicago, who asserted that he has known Price for eight years and that his reputation in the community is bad. Mrs. M. Winkler, 388 Michigan ave., Hammond, said that she had known Price only slightly, but from observing his actions on the street she concluded that he was morally bad. Asked to tell what she had seen, she said that Price had often followed Florence Elmhurst, thirteen years of age, who lived with her parents at 358 Wabash ave. Chief of Police Peter Austin of Hammond was another witness and testified that the reputation of Price in Hammond was unsavory.

Most of the character witnesses called by the defense are members of the society of which is the foreman or president. Mrs. Ida Keffer, 405 Pine st., Hammond, admitted that she is a follower of Price and belonged to the Brotherhood of American Yeomen. Forrest Nicholas, 413 Michigan ave., Hammond, asserted that he came to Price's assistance of his own volition, that he also was a member of the society and that the defendant has a good moral character. Price, Harvey, said that whom Price roomed at 206 Fort Wayne ave., testified that Price, in her estimation was a moral man.

WOMEN CAN'T VOTE AT ELECTION EITHER

Unless Change is Made in Election Law, Women Are Out Of It.

A dispatch from Indianapolis to The Times will be of interest and a source of disappointment as well to the women.

Now that the state board of election commissioners have finally decided that women cannot vote at the primary May 4, for presidential candidates, it develops that women will not be able to vote for presidential electors at the November election unless action is taken by the legislature.

Although the commission did not have its opinion on the fact that no constituency was provided for women at the primary, they, nevertheless made the point that unless changes are made in the election laws things would not go smoothly at the polls.

Within the next few weeks the commission will officially determine just what changes will be necessary and their proposals will be laid before the legislature in special session.

HERE'S A NEW CHAMPION

(INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE)
RICHMOND, Ind., April 8.—Richmond's champion police court defendant went on trial today for the one hundredth time.

He is Alfred C. Underhill, republican candidate for prosecutor. This time he was up for assault and battery having engaged in an alleged fist encounter over a board bill.

He was found guilty of the same charge some months ago and was sentenced to 2 to 14 years in the penitentiary. His appeal is now pending.

Underhill's name can't be kept off the ballot because he is not in jail, according to a ruling by Atty. Gen. Stansbury.

Underhill's son, Paul, is out to beat the pugilistic parent in the race for the same office.

NEDEFF GUILTY SAYS JURY OF HOME WRECKING

Milan Nedeff, proprietor of a shoe repairing and tailor shop in Gary, was held responsible for the wrecking of the home of Moses Barney, when the jury which has been bearing the suit for alienation of affections in Room 1 of the Hammond superior court brought in a verdict late last night finding Barney $4,000 damages.

Judge Reiter read the instructions to the jury at 3:30 after which the jurors retired to deliberate on their verdict. Not until after 8 o'clock was a unanimous decision reached. It is understood that many were in favor of giving the plaintiff the full $10,000 asked while others thought $4,000 would be the proper amount. They finally compromised on $4,000.

Nedeff's testimony in his own behalf, apparently did not impress the jury favorably. In fact on cross-examination he was tripped up on some of his statements in a manner which would cloud his entire testimony. His story stood alone against that told by six witnesses for the plaintiff.

In the closing arguments Nedeff's attorney attacked the motives of Barney in suing for damages and dwelt at length upon the generosity of Nedeff in helping the family when he did. He pictured Barney as biting the hand which fed him.

Attorney Conroy asked the jury to make the damages so high that Nedeff could never pay them, that he might be broken financially and forced to leave the community. He called upon the jurors to remember their duty to society and help such men from Lake County and if possible "drive him back to the shores from whence he came."

The affair has so preyed upon the mind of Barney that it is said he has with difficulty been able to control himself during the trial. Friends had watched him closely for it was feared that undue agitation would lead him to attempt to do bodily injury to Nedeff.

SWITCHMEN'S STRIKE HITS GARY HARD

With the E. J. & E. yard at Kirk practically tied up and the supply of mill yards of the Gary steel plants as a result of the walkout of the E. J. & E. switchmen and yard workers day before yesterday, it is estimated that six thousand steel workers have already been thrown out of work.

Unable to move coal and supplies and in order to conserve the supply of fuel for the coke ovens, eight mill yards went down at the American Sheet and Tin Plate company in Gary, a subsidiary of the U. S. Steel corporation, forcing four thousand men out of employment. Other plants are being affected accordingly.

At the Gary works, all departments are seriously affected and unless some agreement or settlement is made by the end of the week thousands of other men will be laid off. According to estimates this morning it is said that two thousand men at the Gary works are idle. Large numbers are being held idle at the plant with no work to do. It is understood that five blast furnaces were banked yesterday and only part of the open hearths are working.

According to figures there are close to 400 yard employees out on strike which is about 70 per cent. Another big meeting was held at the Labor headquarters in Gary this morning and it is reported that a large number made application for membership to the new organization of the United States to permit such a method of breaking the strike. In order to make the strike more effective every effort is being made to get the firemen to join the association.

The Times' want ads bring astonishing results if their users are to be believed.

Joe Pawowski, one of West Hammond's best known and most popular young men, died Monday night in the Cook county hospital where he had been taken after undergoing an operation at St. Luke's hospital. His death came as a surprise to his friends although it was known that his condition was serious.

He was overseas fourteen months and was discharged last May. Since then he has been residing at 375 156th st., West Hammond. ### Real Life Rough Stuff For Chaplin

Charlie Challenges Wife's Manager and Then Gets Pasted Good and Proper.

(INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE)
LOS ANGELES, CAL., April 8.—The rough stuff of "Real Life" has nothing to do with the stuff of "Real Life."

Charlie Chaplin, film comedy star, today can testify as a result of an encounter he had last night with Louis B. Mayer, manager of Mifflin Harris Chaplin, in the lobby of the Hotel Alexandria.

According to witnesses Chaplin challenged his wife's manager "to take off his glasses." Then the scrap was on. Chaplin swung and missed. Mayer swung and landed. Then came the clinch during which Chaplin went to the floor. His head struck a scaffold used in hotel repair work and blood was drawn.

By this time hotel attaches were on the job. Chaplin was borne off to a room to staunch the flow of the blood in another direction.

Witnesses said Chaplin, who met Mayer first in the hotel dining room, attempted the conflict to advise Mayer as to how to handle his wife's manager. Friends of Chaplin said the comedian had charged Mayer with using his influence to widen the Chaplin family split.

SLEEPING SICKNESS CLAIMS NEW VICTIM

Well Known Gary School Teacher Dies at Mercy Hospital of Malady.

Sleeping sickness claimed its first victim in Gary yesterday. Following an illness of nearly three weeks, Miss Marion Harter, a former and well known Gary teacher, passed away at the Mercy hospital yesterday morning at 6 o'clock.

No alarm was expressed until the day before her condition was serious, as her father who had been at her bedside had left for Indianapolis to transact some business and her host of friends believed she was on the road to recovery. Her only sister, Miss Mildred Harter, also a Gary teacher, was at her bedside.

Expected to take up a new line of work as advance agent for a Chautauque circuit in the West, Miss Harter resigned her position at the Beveridge school in Gary over a month ago. While visiting at Huntington, Ind., she was taken ill with the flu and paralytic fever. She came back to Gary to spend several days with her sister before taking up her new work. She was again taken ill and when her condition became alarming was removed to the Mercy hospital.

Short services were held in Gary this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Presbyterian church by the Rev. P. W. Walton. The remains were then shipped to the former home at Huntington, Ind., where services will occur tomorrow.

FIND "WHITE MULE" IN EGRY'S HOME

Have you wondered where they've been getting "it"? Well, it remained for Captain Bunde and Detectives Kinsale and Singer to find out—and they have.

Late yesterday they arrested Steve Egrý, 567 Fields avenue, and at his home under several names of a "white mule." He was booked on a charge of violating the liquor law and released on $300 bail, pending his appearance before Judge Klotz in the city court.

Egrý is alleged to have been marketing liquor to Hammond young men for some time. They paid for it at the rate of $2 a quart or $3 for a half gallon. After buying the "moonshine" the young blonds it is alleged, would repair to the watchman's tower at Oakley and the M. C. tracks where they would get royally drunk, far above the level of a social drink. Egrý says that he purchased the liquor from parties in Indiana Harbor.

Hero, one of the jurors, was excused because he said a woman was as guilty as a man in every white slave case.

WHAT ENGLAND THINKS OF PICKETING

(INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE)
LONDON, April 8.—All London news papers print Washington dispatches on the picketing of the British Embassy by women of Irish sympathies. The Post's Irish correspondent writes that the Irish picketing is not the outburst of a few enthusiasts, but part of a matured plan to put as much strain as possible on Anglo-American relations. The Irish, he concludes, is "carefully backed."

Lord Northcliffe's Daily Mail treats the event humorously.

Sees Good Chance For Dark Horse

Joseph B. Kealing.

Joseph B. Kealing.

The republican national convention this year will be a long drawn out affair of many ballots, and the republican candidate for president will be chosen by the delegates to the convention after they arrive in Chicago.

According to Joseph B. Kealing of Indianapolis, for years a republican wheel horse in Indiana and the nation and well known in the Calumet region.

"Of the delegates selected to date," Mr. Kealing recently declared, "the great majority are uninstructed for any candidate. In view of the fact that a strenuous campaign has been waged by different candidates for instruction delegates, this is significant, in my opinion, that when the convention meets no candidate will have anywhere near enough votes to win the nomination."

"I do not think any one could safely predict who the nominee will be. It looks to me as if we will have an old-fashioned convention with the nominee named by the delegates in convention after due deliberation."

ECHO OF A CHURCH ROW IS ON TRIAL

After deliberating five hours, the jury in the Hesseville cemetery case brought in a verdict for the defendant at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening. Attorneys had feared there would be a disagreement on the part of the jurors because of the divergent nature of the evidence and it is evident that there was a marked division of opinion.

A damage suit, the result of an alleged assault and battery committed upon a woman by a priest in the Hesseville cemetery, is nearing its close in Room 2 of the Hammond superior court. Evidence is in and attorneys completed their arguments at noon today. It was expected to go to the jury early this afternoon.

The affair, which is the basis of the suit, occurred at Hesseville, August 30, 1918 when Mary Rajchinski, the plaintiff, claims she was stopped at the entrance of the Greek Catholic cemetery by Rev. Michael Corbach of Whiting, a priest of the church. The woman claims to have been roughly used and her physician testified that her arm was dislocated from elbow to shoulder as a result of her treatment.

Mrs. Rajchinski says that she was going to the cemetery at the same time a funeral was being held. She says she was taking several children to visit the grave of their father who was buried there some time before. She was refused admittance and when she insisted, Rev. Corbach seized her by the arm, pushed her down and otherwise roughly handled her.

The defendant says that Mrs. Rajchinski was a member of a funeral party which was attempting to bury the body of a person who was not a member in good standing of the church and for which burial permission had been refused. He claims that the woman had no right in the cemetery and he was attempting to prevent them from carrying out an act which was in violation of the solemn rules and laws of the church.

Because of the divergent nature of the evidence as to the cause of the trouble the jury may have some trouble in reaching a verdict. Incidentally the majority of the jurors are Methodists. Mrs. Rajchinski asks for $1,000 damages. Her attorney is Abe Ottenheimer and the defendant is represented by Peterhof and Ahlberg.
